

Interventional Radiologist Olympia, Washington

ABOUT POSITION

Radia is looking for a fellowship-trained interventional radiologist to fill an IR radiology position in the Olympia, WA.

This full-time position is in a busy urban practice and has a focus on high-end IR to include oncologic procedures (ablative therapies such as chemoembolizations / Y-(90) and stroke interventions.

This is a partnership track position.

Radia offers a competitive compensation package including up to a $25K signing bonus.

If interested, please submit your CV to Jobs@Radiax.com

ABOUT RADIA

One of the most important decisions any physician makes is the practice they join.

Radia PS is a 100% physician owned and managed practice, dedicated to the care of patients. Radia has been ranked #1 in the Radiology Business 2018 and 2019 Group Practice Surveys. <https://www.radiologybusiness.com/topics/healthcare-economics/2019-group-practice-survey-exemplary-80>

Physicians will be reviewed by the Board of Directors for partnership recommendation to the shareholders 12- 24 months from joining, based on experience.

Shift Compensation

- First year guaranteed shareholder track salary is $400,5000.
- Shareholder compensation for this position exceeds $480,000.
- Profit sharing, malpractice, health insurance, and generous CME are offered.

A major difference between Radia and many practices, we have consciously chosen to keep partner buy-in low as we want to retain good physicians.

In addition to proprietary workflow software and related technology, we have implemented machine learning in our environment.

Radia is one of the very few practices in the country with the scale, technology and ownership structure to implement machine learning in a way that benefits patients and radiologists, not investors.

To learn more about Radia Inc PS visit <http://www.radiax.com>

ABOUT THE SOUTH PUGET SOUND AREA

Olympia is Washington's capitol city providing outdoor enthusiasts with limitless adventures. Although it has the feel of an eclectic Pacific NW small town, the South Sound region has amenities of a much bigger city offering a vibrant cultural scene. It is the cradle of the "Seattle Sound," the home of a nationally recognized liberal arts state university as well as a highly regarded Catholic university and is the host of numerous community festivals. The South Sound Region, to include Olympia and Tacoma, provides easy access to theater, opera, and excellent restaurants.

In the Puget Sound, you can live on the water or in an evergreen forest. You can be at the Washington coast or in the Cascade Mountains on a day trip. Fishing, boating, kayaking, skiing, biking, golfing, hiking, and mountaineering are all world class, and just out your back door. Olympia is located within 2-3 hours of three national parks - Olympic, Mount Rainier, and North Cascades - for day or weekend trips. Just an easy trek down the highway from two of the best large cities in America--Seattle and Portland, Olympia is ideally situated to take advantage of all that those cities offer, but with a much more affordable cost of living. If you are looking for an even more cosmopolitan get-away, beautiful Vancouver, British Columbia is just three hours away.

Olympia also has very highly rated schools, one of the lowest unemployment rates in the country, and many healthy neighborhoods in which to raise a family.

To learn more about the South Puget Sound visit <http://olympiawa.gov/community/about-olympia.aspx>

https://www.washingtonpost.com/graphics/2018/lifestyle/vacation-ideas/things-to-do-in-olympia/?noredirect=on&utm\_term=.ea937fec5a4f